

IMI Accreditation. Diagnostic Technician

NEED TO KNOW

This is not a training course and contains no technical training delivery in either the classroom or workshop. This is an assessment of existing knowledge and competency in this area. Delegates must bring appropriate PPE with them (boots & overalls).

TARGET GROUP

The technician should be working in the light vehicle sector of the industry and ideally have at least three years' experience to ensure they are familiar with the skills, knowledge and techniques required to diagnose system faults, rectify the faults including replacing components and return the vehicle systems to manufacturer specification.

ASSESSMENT DURATION

1 day (8 hours contact)

ASSESSMENT CONTENT

IMI Qualification ref: IMIA-ATA- LV-3-13

DETAILED DESCRIPTOR

Introduction to assessment staff.

Explanation of the expectations and running order for the day.

Explanation of the assessment criteria and procedures.

Lunch, tea/coffee and biscuits at appropriate times.

Online underpinning knowledge assessment.

Practical workshop competence assessments

Discussions, summary and conclusions

Feedback from the assessment

Where applicable, accreditation photo card and certificate will be issued to those who meet the required standard during assessment (issued by post after the event). Successful completion will result in inclusion on the IMI Professional Register unless requested otherwise.

Contact us